This Week at Park Hill

Welcome to another edition of our newsletter. It really is very busy in school at the moment. Lots of deadlines for staff to meet and lots of memories and experiences for the children planned. It was a really special assembly for me along when I sat with parents and staff to watch our Reception children perform a Family Assembly. I was delighted to see how happy and confident the children appeared as they described their learning journey over since September through Autumn, Winter, Spring and Summer. I cannot believe that they are on the cusp of moving on into Year One.

I do hope that as many of you as possible are able to join us in school tomorrow for the annual PTA Summer Fair. It all starts at 12pm and promises to be another glorious day. Looking forward to seeing you all tomorrow.

Have a good weekend.
